A FAMILY FAVORITE MUSICAL!

Many grew up reading the book and loving the movie about southern England's precocious little five-year-old Matilda Wormwood as she and her fellow students deal with their vicious school headmistress, Miss Trunchbull, and their lovely teacher, Miss Honey.

Matilda is an extraordinary young girl with a love of books, a vivid imagination and a sharp mind. It's a scrappy story full of heart as she leads her classmates to take a stand for their future.

By the same author as WILLY WONKA, it won London's Best Musical Award as well as five Broadway Tony Awards.

Our Kids' Camp is a week of rehearsals and workshops under the direction of Lacy Cockrell, and it ends with performances from 100 young actors that will AMAZE you!

ANOTHER SWEET SOUTHERN COMEDY!!

Written by the same author as DRIVING MISS DAISY - so you know it's clever!

The story? 1939 - Atlanta, Georgia, is all abuzz about the upcoming world premiere of "Gone With The Wind" - but the real big social event for many is the annual lavish 'Ballyhoo Ball' - a country club cotillion where the ladies 'coming of age' are presented with the eligible bachelors.

The posh Levy family needs a date for their daughter, but Mom just doesn't approve of ANYONE. Regardless of their social standing, they're just like every other Southern family - they bicker and laugh, and they cry, and then laugh some more!

It got 10 nominations for the Pulitzer Prize and Tony. Outer Critics and Drama Desk Awards, winning the 1997 Tony Award for Best Play. Rick Youngblood is directing.

AN ALL-TIME CLASSIC!!!

Picture it: Truvy's Beauty Spot in Chinquapin, Louisiana - a salon where 'anybody who is anybody' comes to get their hair done, and...to talk about everybody else!

We've remembered these characters forever - Truvy and her assistant Annelle, and the ladies of the town: M'Lynn and daughter Shelby, and Ouiser and her friend Clairee.

The original NYC stage play ran for three years - and the Golden Globe winning and Oscar nominated movie remains a favorite for the ages.

Director Lacy Cockrell's cast of ladies that are "as delicate as magnolia flowers, but as tough as steel" will fill you with good ole belly laughs and bring some tears to your eyes.

A NEW BROADWAY MUSICAL!!

An Alabama man thinks of himself as the 'Big Fish' in town - known for the tall-tales he tells his son as he's growing up. Witches, Giants and a Mermaid all show up in his stories. Mythical? Or were they real?

His son was entertained by them as a little boy, but he's grown up and about to have a child of his own, and now just wants to know the truth behind his dad's epic tales.

Full of heart and humor with a rich score of beautiful songs, this will be a fantastical 'whopper' of a show. It reminds us of why we love going to the theatre - for an experience that's richer, funnier and more extraordinary than life itself!

Director Will Hodges and Music Director Sue Bush have a huge cast that features LLT faves Jonathan McKenzie, Holly Wansley and Jay Baggett in the lead roles.
