A VERY NEW BROADWAY MUSICAL!!

Directed by Frankie Bennett

A recent Broadway hit that got multiple Tony Award nominations including "Best Musical." A great score, funny script, big dance numbers and spectacular costumes.

The story? Set in Shakespearean times, a set of brothers producing theatre shows never seem to have the hits their arch enemy has, the "Bard," swash-buckler ladies man, William Shakespeare.

So they have a clever idea - why not put words to music to bring in a crowd - creating the world's first "musical comedy." It's super funny as every song spoofs something from our modern shows - from PHANTOM, LEZ MIZ, CATS, OKLAHOMA and even ANNIE - all the shows get included. There's even one big number that has riffs off two dozen different musicals from the last four decades in just one five-minute song.

A VERY FUNNY SOUTHERN COMEDY!

Directed by Rick Youngblood

Two ladies are thrown together as roommates in a retirement home, but they are NOT a perfect match!

One is upbeat and cheerful and optimistic, while the other is very much the opposite and just wants to live alone.

Think of a combination of THE ODD COUPLE mixed in with THE GOLDEN GIRLS.

We see them squirm and fight, and practically kill each other and everyone around them as they devise all kinds of dirty tricks to torment one another. They try to out-prank and out-scare each other hoping that the other will just move out - a perfect Halloween season production.

Written by Pulitzer Prize for Drama winner David Lindsay-Abaire, his witty script is laugh-out-loud funny filled with massive amounts of heart!

ANOTHER SOUTHERN COMEDY!

Directed by Jay Baggett

Happy Fourth of July! The burgers are prepped, the brownies are out of the oven, and the Miss Firecracker Contest is about to begin!

Mississippi author Beth Henley won the Pulitzer Prize for Drama for CRIMES OF THE HEART and followed that up with this explosively funny comedy set in 1984 in our neighboring town of Brookhaven.

Carmelle Scott is rehearsing furiously for the contest and has a big talent number planned - she taps and turns somersaults to "The Star-Spangled Banner" while clenching a sparkler in her teeth. True talent indeed - her act is so bad that it's actually great!

Throw in some charming, but very colorful locals and you have a recipe for lots of belly-laughs in this explosion of red, glitter and blue and homegrown Southern values! A true casserole of sympathy and snickers!

A FAMILY FAVORITE MUSICAL!

Directed by Lacy Cockrell

Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious! It's one of the all-time favorites.

The story we all grew up knowing is a charmer with magical nanny Mary Poppins and the lovable Banks children.

It'll feature beautiful settings and costumes, and those unforgettable songs that everyone just loves: "A Spoonful Of Sugar," "Feed The Birds" and "Let's Go Fly A Kite."

The show set all kinds of records with the most Oscar nominations for the movie version, as well as "Best Musical" for both the London and NYC stage versions.

Our annual Kids' Camp production is a week of rehearsals and workshops that ends with performances from 100 young actors that will AMAZE everyone!
